August 2017

Dear Readers

Welcome to edition 101 of the Gassy Gossip. The months of July and August have been very busy with road works, town maintenance and general administration duties.

The construction crew have been working around the Lyons River reconstructing sections of Ullawarra Road. I drove through there on Sunday (20/08/2017) and the work is coming up a treat, our staff keep on demonstrating how good they are in this area.

The WANDRRA works have now commenced with work being done on the Carnarvon – Mullewa Road by Quadrio, and the Cobra - Dairy Creek Road which is being undertaken by Lacy Bros. On Saturday the 20th of September I undertook an inspection and the work was progressing well to a very good standard. I would ask all people on and about these roads works, to watch for traffic control points, and drive according to the nominated signage. We do not want any incidents to either a contractor or a road user.

The Shire has taken delivery of two new pieces of plant to add to our existing equipment. When I say the equipment is new, it is actually second hand. The way the market is at the moment it is a good time to buy low hour good quality machinery at very reasonable prices, as such, we have taken delivery of a Side Tipper, Bobcat with attachments (trencher, forks, street sweeper and auger).

I attended the Mount Augustus Long Table Dinner on Saturday the 19th of September 2017. The function was very well attended with around 150 people. The food presented was absolutely top class. Verity James from the ABC was the MC for the evening - she was very entertaining. Don and Dot Hammarquist are to be congratulated on hosting this event, which is fast becoming a must on the Gascoyne social calendar. The food products were all sourced locally from the Gascoyne Food Council and Harvey Beef.

At the time of writing, all the committee and other volunteers have been extremely busy setting up for the Junction Races. I am confident that this will be another very well attended and well run event in the Gascoyne. I am constantly amazed by the dedication and work undertaken by people who have a passion for particular events. I will be working on the merchandise table, so please come and see me. Whilst there do purchase a shirt or some other piece of merchandise, as all the profits go back into the race club.

On a sadder note, I must inform you that Ms Judy McGregor, has been flown to Charles Gairdner Hospital, we wish Judy a very speedy recovery.

We will be commencing 'Pictures at the park' on Friday the 22nd of September. The new Smurf movie will be screened on the shires big screen. All are welcome to attend, with free popcorn and a sausage sizzle for the children.

As always, I am available at most times, so call in and have a coffee and a chat, you can also get me at home on 99430988 or 0417107446. Have a great month and I will see you at the Races!!!!

Landor Races

We are proud to have been chosen to perform at the 2017 Landor Races being held over the weekend of 30th September to 3rd October.

The Landor Races are the Eastern Gascoyne Race Club's traditional bush race meeting; held annually in the third term school holidays at the racecourse near Landor Station. The meeting has a colourful history and truly outback flavour. In 1921 at a combined mustering camp, which was the custom in those days, a number of stockmen from stations in the area were having a day off. These men were resting and doing their washing when they started to argue about who had the fastest horse. Following discussions with interested parties from the surrounding stations, the EGRC was formed and the Landor tradition was born.

Dinner

Ultimate Paella Recipe

Ingredients

Note: If you do not like seafood, you can just leave it out and replace with more chicken and chorizo.

15-inch paella pan

¼ cup olive oil

1 chicken breast, skin and bones removed, cut into bite sized pieces

12 to 16 tiger prawns, peeled and deveined

12 to 16 clams, scrubbed

8 to 12 mussels, scrubbed

1 red bell pepper, seeded and cut into slices

2 small hot chorizos, skin removed, flesh cut into ½ -inch pieces

2 tomatoes, peeled, seeded, and chopped

1 teaspoon paprika

⅛ teaspoon saffron

5-½ cups chicken stock

1 cup green peas, frozen

2 cups Arborio paella rice, unwashed coarse sea salt

Serves 4-6

Method

Heat the oil in the paella pan.

Add the chicken and sauté on all sides until golden. Set aside on a plate for later.

Add the red bell pepper and chorizo and sauté until chorizo is fragrant and slightly crispy.

Add tomatoes, paprika, saffron, and salt.

Stir until combined, then add the stock.

Bring to a boil, then lower the flame so it simmers gently for 15 minutes.

Pour in the rice.

Stir everything in the pan thoroughly. Once mixed thoroughly, do not stir again.

Add the chicken, prawns, clams, and mussels.

Once the seafood is cooked — prawns have turned pink and the shellfish have opened — ladle them out into a platter and set aside.

Continue to cook the rice over medium to low heat. Add the green peas when very little liquid is left in the pan.

Add the prawns, clams, and mussels back into the pan.

Remove from the heat and leave for 5 to 10 minutes.

Serve paella warm.

Double Layer Pumpkin Cheesecake

"A great alternative to pumpkin pie, especially for those cheesecake fans out there. Serve topped with whipped cream."

Ingredients

- 2 (8 ounce) packages cream cheese, softened
  - 1/2 cup white sugar
  - 1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract
  - 2 eggs
  - 1 (9 inch) prepared graham cracker crust
  - 1/2 cup pumpkin puree
  - 1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon
  - 1 pinch ground cloves
  - 1 pinch ground nutmeg
- 1/2 cup frozen whipped topping, thawed

Directions

1. Preheat oven to 325 degrees F (165 degrees C).
2. In a large bowl, combine cream cheese, sugar and vanilla. Beat until smooth. Blend in eggs one at a time. Remove 1 cup of batter and spread into bottom of crust; set aside.
3. Add pumpkin, cinnamon, cloves and nutmeg to the remaining batter and stir gently until well blended. Carefully spread over the batter in the crust.

Bake in preheated oven for 35 to 40 minutes, or until centre is almost set. Allow to cool, then refrigerate for 3 hours or overnight. Cover with whipped topping before serving.

Two hunters are out in the woods when one of them collapses. He doesn't seem to be breathing and his eyes are glazed. The other guy whips out his phone and calls the emergency services.

He gasps, "My friend is dead! What can I do?"

The operator says "Calm down. I can help. First, let's make sure he's dead."

There is a silence, then a shot is heard. Back on the phone, the guy says "OK, now what?"

2.

Sherlock Holmes and Dr Watson were going camping. They pitched their tent under the stars and went to sleep.

Sometime in the middle of the night Holmes woke Watson up and said: "Watson, look up at the stars, and tell me what you see."??

Watson replied: "I see millions and millions of stars." ??

Holmes said: "And what do you deduce from that?" ??

Watson replied: "Well, if there are millions of stars, and if even a few of those have planets, it's quite likely there are some planets like earth out there. And if there are a few planets like earth out there, there might also be life." ??

And Holmes said: "Watson, you idiot, it means that somebody stole our tent."

3.

An Englishman, Scotsman and Irishman discuss which might be the most interesting of inventions:

The Englishman suggest it is the telephone.

The Scotsman suggests it's money.

The Irishman suggests it is the thermos flask.

"So what's so good about that then?"

"Well, it keeps hot things hot and cold things cold."

"Aye and what's so great about that?"

"Well, how does it know the difference?"

4.

A man has his car full of penguins. He drives past a policeman, but the policeman stops him. He says. "Hey, you! Yeah, you! You should take those penguins to the zoo!"

The man does that.

The next day in the same spot, the man still has the penguins. Once again he drives past the policeman. "Hey, I thought I told you to take those penguins to the zoo!"

"I did," replies the man. "We had so much fun that were going to the beach today!"
